What we do
How does CorePlus Federal Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

CorePlus Federal Credit Union regularly tests our security procedures and performs enhancements as needed to protect member information.

How does CorePlus Federal Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money into an account
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
